PRESENTING AMERICA'S GREATEST ARTISTS SINCE 2005

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

APRIL 1, 2018–MARCH 31, 2019

DEAR MAJESTIC PATRON,

As befits a performing arts center in one of America's most historic small towns, I purposefully program live performances, films and art exhibits at the Majestic that illuminate and celebrate the vivid tapestry of the American experience. Since our grand reopening in 2005, the Majestic stage has been graced by a host of legendary American artists including Hal Holbrook, Elaine Stritch, James Earl Jones, Lily Tomlin, Dave Brubeck, Roy Clark, Judy Collins, The Smothers Brothers, Joan Baez, Alvin Ailey Dance Company, Rosanne Cash, Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Arlo Guthrie, Jr., Darlene Love, Bob Newhart and many, many more.

These artists embody the rich mosaic of American voices heard across our great land "from sea to shining sea," and their stories build bridges of understanding across different points of view. The arts strengthen the social, educational and economic institutions that sustain healthy communities during trying times of social and economic turmoil.

The value of what the Majestic contributes to the quality of life in Adams County is priceless, but operating a first-class performing arts center is an expensive proposition. Because the Majestic cannot earn its entire annual operating budget through ticket sales, it relies on tax-deductible donations from patrons to balance its books. Your personal support combined with Gettysburg College's generous annual subsidy allows the Majestic to operate with a balanced budget. As Immediate Past Chair of the League of Historic American Theatres with more than 350 member theaters nationwide, I know this mutually beneficial partnership between the Greater Adams County Community and Gettysburg College is the envy of small town theaters everywhere.

Please help me protect our valuable community treasure by making a generous membership pledge today. You have my word of honor one hundred percent of your tax deductible membership contribution will go to support the annual operations of the Majestic Theater.
