Thanks for the MAJESTIC MEMORIES!
Dear Majestic Patron,

“Thanks For The Memory” was the theme song of one of America’s most enduring entertainers, Bob Hope, star of stage, screen, radio and countless USO shows wherever America’s troops were stationed. The song ends, “Oh how lovely it was. Thank you so much.” And how thankful we are today for the lovely memories we all have of the world-class artists who have performed for us on the stage and screens of “America’s grandest small town theater” since our grand re-opening in 2005. One of the most comments I often hear following a performance is, “Oh thank you so much. I can’t believe I just saw this famous artist in little old Gettysburg!”

The value of what the Majestic contributes to the quality of life in Adams County is priceless, but operating a first-class theater is an expensive proposition. Because the Majestic cannot earn its entire annual operating budget through ticket sales, it relies on tax-deductible donations from its patrons to balance its books. This community support combined with Gettysburg College’s generous annual subsidy allows the Majestic to operate with a balanced budget. This trusted partnership between the Greater Adams County community and Gettysburg College provides the financial stability which allows me to program the world’s most talented and engaging artists who will create new memories to last a lifetime.

Please help me protect this valuable cultural and educational treasure which brings joy to the world, sparks conversation about contemporary concerns, and delights children of all ages. You have my word of honor, 100% of your tax deductible membership contribution will go to support the annual operations of the Majestic Theater. Thank you so much.
