David Crosby: Remember My Name

(1 hr, 35 mins) | Music legend David Crosby contemplates his life and musical journey while rejecting retirement in this intimate documentary. | You thought you knew him. Meet legendary musician David Crosby, 78, in this portrait of a man with everything but an easy retirement on his mind. With unflinching honesty, self-examination, regret, fear, exuberance and an unshakable belief in family and the transformative nature of music, Crosby shares his often challenging journey.

Rating: R

Brittany Runs a Marathon

(1 hr, 43 mins) A New York woman takes control of her life and her health, one block at a time. | Brittany Forglar is a hilarious, friendly, hot mess of a New Yorker who always knows how to have a good time, but at 27, her late-night adventures and early-morning walks-of-shame are starting to catch up to her. When she stops by a Yelp-recommended doctor's office in an attempt to score some Adderall, she finds herself slapped with a prescription she never wanted. Forced to face reality for the first time in a long time, Brittany laces up her Converse and runs one sweaty block. The next day, she runs two. Soon she runs a mile. Brittany finally has direction — but is she on the right path? Rating: R

Official Secrets

(1 hr, 52 mins) In 2003, a British whistleblower leaks classified information to the press, igniting a firestorm of controversy and conspiracy in this true story. Starring Kiera Knightley, Matthew Goode, Ralph Fiennes, and Matt Smith. | The true story of British

Intelligence whistleblower Katharine Gun, who prior to the 2003 Iraq invasion leaked a top-secret NSA memo exposing a joint US-UK illegal spying operation against members of the UN Security Council. The memo proposed blackmailing member states into voting for war. Rating: R

The Peanut Butter Falcon

(1 hr, 33 mins) Zak runs away from his care home to pursue a career in wrestling, making new friends on his journey. Starring Shia LaBeouf and Dakota Johnson. | The Peanut Butter Falcon tells the story of Zak, a young man with Down syndrome who runs away from a residential nursing home to follow his dream of attending the professional wrestling school of his idol, The Salt Water Redneck. A strange turn of events pairs him on the road with Tyler, a small time outlaw on the run, who becomes Zak's unlikely coach and ally. Together they wind through deltas, elude capture, drink whisky, find God, catch fish, and convince Eleanor, a kind nursing home employee charged with Zak's return, to join them on their journey. Rating: PG-13

Where's My Roy Cohn?

(1 hr, 37 mins) Controversial attorney Roy Cohn's ruthless career, launched by his work with Senator Joseph McCarthy during the Red Scare, is exposed in this documentary. | One of the most controversial and influential American men of the 20th Century, Roy Cohn was a ruthless and unscrupulous lawyer and political power broker whose 28-year career ranged from acting as chief counsel to Senator Joseph McCarthy's Communist-hunting subcommittee to molding the career of a young Queens real estate developer named Donald Trump. Rating: PG-13

After the Wedding

(1 hr, 50 mins) The manager of an orphanage in the Indian state of West Bengal encounters more than she bargained for when she travels to the United States to secure a multi-million-dollar donation. Starring Michelle Williams, Julianne Moore, and Billy Crudup. | Isabel (Michelle Williams) has dedicated her life to working with the children in an orphanage in Calcutta. Theresa (Julianne Moore) is the multimillionaire head of a media company who lives with her artist husband (Billy Crudup) and their twin boys in New York. When word comes to Isabel of a mysterious and generous grant for the financially struggling orphanage, she must travel to New York to meet the benefactor — Theresa — in person. Rating: PG-13

Linda Ronstadt: The Sound of My Voice

(1 hr, 35 mins) Linda Ronstadt and a host of famous friends explore her rise to the top of the rock charts, breaking through barriers along the way. | Linda Ronstadt: The Sound of My Voice is a musical biography of one of the most successful and versatile female singers of the 20th century — and one of the most successful recording artists of all time. At the height of unprecedented success, Ronstadt, a restless and adventurous artist, turned away from pop music to explore an astonishing variety of musical styles, from American standards to country to classical operetta before circling back to her family roots with traditional Mexican canciones. Rating: NR

Downton Abbey

(1 hr, 30 mins) The cast of the PBS mega hit make their big screen debut as the Crawley Family and their household prepare for a once-in-a-lifetime visit from the royal family. | This fall, the worldwide phenomenon Downton Abbey, becomes a grand motion picture event, as the beloved Crawleys and their intrepid staff prepare for the most important moment of their lives. A royal visit from the King and Queen of England will unleash scandal, romance and intrigue that will leave the future of Downton hanging in the balance. Rating: PG

Monos

(1 hr, 42 mins) A band of survivalist teens take a hostage and commandeer a milk cow high in the mountains. | In a remote mountaintop setting somewhere in Latin America, a rebel group of teenage commandos bearing noms de guerre like Rambo, Smurf, Bigfoot, Wolf and Boom-Boom perform military training exercises while watching over a prisoner (Julianne Nicholson) and a conscripted milk cow for a shadowy force known only as “The Organization.” After an ambush drives the squadron into the jungle, fracturing their intricate bond, the mission begins to collapse. Rating: NR

Judy

(1 hr, 59 mins) Renée Zellweger stars as Judy Garland as she arrives in London in 1968 to perform a series of sold-out concerts and attempt to rebuild her life. | Winter 1968 and showbiz legend Judy Garland arrives in Swinging London to perform a five-week sold-out run at The Talk of the Town. It is 30 years since she shot to global stardom in The Wizard of Oz, but if her voice has weakened, its dramatic intensity has only grown. As she prepares for the show, battles with management, charms musicians and reminisces with friends and adoring fans, her wit and warmth shine through. Even her dreams of love seem undimmed as she embarks on a whirlwind romance with Mickey Deans, her soon-to-be fifth husband. Rating: PG-13
