

MAJESTIC EXECUTIVE ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL HISTORIC THEATRE BOARD

(August 5, 2013) – Jeffrey W. Gabel, Founding Executive Director of Gettysburg College’s Majestic Theater, has been elected to serve as vice president of the board of directors of the League of Historic American Theatres starting in January 2014. The election took place on July 19th at the League’s 37th annual conference and theatre tour in Minneapolis, MN. The League is a non-profit association dedicated to sustaining America’s historic theatres for the benefit of their communities and future generations, and is a growing network of more than 300 historic theatres in 47 states and Canada. Founded in 1976, the League helps members save and operate historic theatres through educational programs, publications, technologies and specialized services.

“It is a real honor to serve on this dynamic national board,” commented Gabel. “During my long career, I’ve had countless colleagues who mentored me by sharing their knowledge and experience. Service on the League’s board gives me a bigger audience to share my experience and passion with the next generation of historic theatre operators.”
